Protection of your personal data

Protection of your personal data

1. Introduction

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing, the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you may exercise in relation to your data (the right to access, rectify, block etc.).

The European institutions are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. As this service/application collects and further processes personal data, Regulation 2018/1725¹ is applicable.

This privacy statement concerns meetings, workshops, and other similar events undertaken by DG MOVE, hereinafter referred as the operating DG.

2. Why do we process your data?

Purpose of the processing operation: DG MOVE (referred to hereafter as Data Controller) collects and uses your personal information to ensure an adequate organization and follow-up of the meetings organized by the operating DG.

Lawfulness of the processing operation:

The processing operations on personal data for the organization and management of the meeting are necessary and lawful under the following article of the Regulation:

- Article 5 (a): "processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body".

3. Which data do we collect and process?

Only data necessary for the organisation and management of the meeting, such as title, name, surname, position, postal & e-mail addresses, phone number, etc.

Live web streaming, video recording and images of the speakers and the participants, as well as photographs of groups of participants and organizers could be taken and published in the context of the meeting.

Participants that do not wish to be part of the above recording/publishing activities are given the possibility to opt-out. The organizer will offer those participants a solution. For instance an alternative room where to follow the meeting by live web streaming. The participants will be informed how this will be arranged upon registration on site.

4. How long do we keep your data?

The Controller only keeps the data for as long as follow-up actions to the meeting are necessary, considering the purpose(s) of the processing of personal data: the meeting and its related management.

All personal data will be deleted from databases 1 year after the last action in relation to the meeting.

¹ Regulation 2018/1725 of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (OJ L 295 of 21 November 2018).

Protection of your personal data

Reports containing personal data might be archived according to the Commission's legal framework.

Nevertheless, where needed, after this delay, personal data will be part of a list of contact details shared internally amongst the European Commission services for the purpose of contacting data subjects in the future in the context of the Commission's activities. If data subjects do not agree with this, they may contact the Controller by using the Contact Information as mentioned in this Privacy statement.

How do we protect your data?

All data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, uploaded batches of data etc.) are stored either on the servers of the European Commission or of its contractor, the operations of which abide by the European Commission's security decision of 10 January 2017 on the security of communication and information systems in the European Commission².

The Commission's contractors are bound by specific contractual clauses for any processing operations of your data on behalf of the Commission, and by the confidentiality obligations deriving from the transposition of Directive 95/46/CE³ as repealed by Regulation (EU) 2016/679⁴.

5. Who has access to your data and to whom is it disclosed?

Participants of the meetings, and a wider public if it is provided that personal data are published on Internet, without prejudice to a possible transmission to the bodies in charge of a monitoring or inspection task in accordance with Community legislation.

For communication and educational purposes of interpreters, some recordings of webcasts could be used by the SCIC services. This processing is described in a specific notification to the DPO 2810.2.

Your personal data will be part of a list of contact details shared internally amongst the mobility and transport family's EU institutions and bodies for the purpose of contacting data subjects in the future in the context of their activities. If you do not agree with this, please contact the Controller by using the Contact Information mentioned in chapter 7 and by explicitly specifying your request.

6. What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

According to the Regulation, you are entitled to access your personal data and rectify or block or delete it in case the data is inaccurate or incomplete.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the data controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer and if necessary the European Data Protection Supervisor using the contact information given at point 8 below.

² Commission decision (EU, Euratom) 2017/46 (OJ L 6/40 of 11 January 2017).

³ Directive 95/46/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 October 1995 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (OJ L 281, 23/11/1995).

⁴ Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) (Text with EEA relevance) (OJ L 119, 4.5.2016).
